

Today's early childhood leaders are experiencing unprecedented challenges. The need to balance boundaries with compassion is critical to establish and maintain a positive, flourishing climate in your program. In this series we will build capacity for self-awareness, self-compassion and selflessness which will serve as the foundation for a leadership approach that harnesses your organization's biggest asset, its human beings.

Audience: Early Childhood Directors, Administrators and Leaders!

Benefits:

- Strengthen staff retention and recruitment strategies
- Foster a climate of trust, improve employee engagement, renew purpose and collaboration
- Inspire personal and professional growth among your staff
- Create an environment where staff feel safe and valued
- Additionally, all participants will receive free access to the Healthy Minds @ Work app.
